

CORPORATE TRAINING CLASSES OVER 60 LANGUAGES AVAILABLE

Every day, thousands of new companies are created all over the world. In addition, a continuously globalizing business environment means that American companies are doing business in the furthest reaches of the globe. Each day is bringing more opportunities to expand operations in new and exciting markets.

Atlanta International Language Institute is well positioned to serve the needs of such companies. Classes are taught here in our Atlanta facilities and we offer corporate training classes all over the US. Our instructors travel all over the country in service to our clients. This is only possible because we offer the best qualified and most talented instructors in the area, and because we offer instruction in over 60 languages from the most widespread to the most obscure.

For companies looking to relocate employees, acclimate new hires or increase business in another language there is simply no better alternative in language learning than Atlanta International Language Institute

Classes can be arranged with one of our experts at a time most convenient for the client. In many situations we are able to offer a free introductory class. Please call us at (404) 250-0350 or email info@languageatlanta.com
